Compact, productive and easy to use, the M C240FW is the professional choice for busy homeworkers. Making light of business communication, its versatile functionality includes colour and black-and-white printing, copying, scanning and fax. The integral document feeder automates manual scanning processes, and printing at speeds of up to 24 pages a minute in full colour, immaculate business letters, reports and presentations are produced without a pause for thought.

Setup and support could not be easier. Ricoh's intuitive WiFi wizard quickly connects the multifunctional printer to the home network. The colour touchscreen display simplifies operation, and with mobile printing a standard feature, home workers can easily print to the device from other locations. To save paper, duplex printing is a standard feature, and reducing the need for frequent toner replenishment, the M C240FW supports high yield all-in-one print cartridges.
