Seamless UHD Content Delivery

Samsung's Signage Player Box produces high-quality, UHD content across screens, with minimal operational burden. Backed by the powerful Tizen operating system, this versatility allows the box to deliver a smooth, centralized server-to-display exchange, free of bulky and expensive external hardware

Fully-Integrated Performance Management

UHD Signage Player Box provides flexibility with a centralized management platform, offering detailed performance updates, allowing users to make critical display adjustments anytime, anywhere. Along with customizable apps through SSSP 6, users have a more flexible and convenient experience.

Intuitive All-in-One Operations

The UHD Signage Player Box combines information processing and content management tools into a single platform, for added operational simplicity. Weighing just 0.6 kg, even with embedded MagicINFO S Player 6 and SSSP 6, the compact design of the box makes it an ideal solution.
